Copyright Statement

As the first author of the submission, I represent the team. I agree to and accept the following terms:

- A. I certify that the submission follows the below rules:
 - a) The submission must be the original work of the entering developers;
 - b) Programming teams whose code is derived from or including game-playing code written by others must name all other authors in their submission details and follow the license terms of the code;
 - c) The submission is not derived from an existing open-source Gomocup AI (e.g., Pela). Instead, we encourage you to contribute to those open-source AIs directly;
- B. I grant Gomocup the nonexclusive right to use and distribute the submission freely;
- C. I represent and warrant that exercise of these rights by Gomocup will not infringe or otherwise violate any rights of another person or organization.
